

So, best case scenario for you is that you contact me without delay and we come to some arrangement that doesn't end up with you in prison. Worst case, the campaign succeeds and everything I said would happen happens. I think you'll be suicidal. There are all kinds of stages in between.

I'm posting this to you Friday. I'll spend a bit more time on it this evening and get the appendices ready, just like I did for your case against Sally. By the time you read this the appeal will be in the post and it will be too late to stop this turning up on Judge Hughes desk on Monday.

There are ways out of this for you, and the sooner you contact me the more I will do to minimise the harm that is going to be caused to you by the truth coming out. I'll show you your written evidence and other documents so you can see the situation for yourself. As I have always said, you deserve a bit of a bad time, but this will destroy you and that is going too far.

It may still be possible to get you out of this but I'll have to give it some thought, and go over it with you.

Graham.
